

Town of Southampton ~ Civil War Veterans

William Watson Bennett

Hometown: Unknown

Bennett served in the 81st New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment, known the “Mohawk Rangers,” Company H.

In January 1862, William mustered into service, at the age of 21, with the rank of Private.

Bennett was discharged with a disability.

He is buried in Oakland Cemetery, Sag Harbor.

1861~1865

©2022

WILLIAM WATSON
PRIVATE CO. H. 81. REGT.
N. Y. VOL.
JAN. 1841 - FEB. 1862

CAROLINE WARNER
APRIL 1842 - SEPT. 1933

BENNETT

Bennett, William W.

Oakland Cemetery, Sag Harbor

---

By his advertisement in another column, it will be seen that William W. Bennett has opened a livery stable in the Nassau House Stables. Having a new and elegant stage lately manufactured for him by Messrs Cullum & Meyers, together with another one and two horse vehicles, and good horses adapted for the business, he is now ready to serve the public.

---