

Town of Southampton ~ Civil War Veterans

Oscar A. Hildreth

Hometown: Southampton

Hildreth served in the 127th New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment, known as the “Monitors,” in Company K.

In September 1862, at the age of 25, he mustered in with the rank of Private.

He was discharged for a disability in January 1864, and returned home.

He is buried in the Southampton Cemetery.

1861~1865

©2022

Hildreth, Oscar A.
Southampton Cemetery