

Town of Southampton ~ Civil War Veterans

James F. Jennings

Hometown: Unknown

Jennings served in the 127th New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment, known as the "Monitors," in Company K.

On September 8, 1862, at the age of 23, he mustered in with the rank of Private. He mustered out with his company on June 30, 1865, at Charleston, S.C.

He is buried in the Riverhead Cemetery.

1861~1865

©2022

Jennings, James F.
Riverhead Cemetery