May 21, 2025

In Attendance: Gail Sheppard, Rick Martell, Victoria Firemark, Colvin Cumberbatch, Michael Iasilli, Paula Godfrey, Christine Taylor, Michael McCullough, Erin Spellman.

7:00pm open

Code Enforcement.

Ponquogue Bridge Morning Traffic.

Police Department response time during the Rush hour is taking a while.

Shinnecock Nation Project.

The Bess Project Enhancement

The Condition of the "Park" where the Motel was taken down.

The Status of the CELL TOWER at the Fishing Dock.

Homeless people are on the street, some of them drunk or passed out. Perhaps the police should conduct an outreach to business owners to contact the police if homeless people are intoxicated or a public nuisance. New legislation would be difficult.

Applications for smoke shop next to Carvel. Reversing the Marijuana Law would be difficult. The Town Board is looking to see if anything can be done.

New hotel where Boardy Barn was located. Their plans are moving forward.

A sex offender is living in the group home on Ponquogue Avenue. There are many children in the area.

Grant money Chamber received. Perhaps we can have Christmas trees downtown and the wreathes need to be updated.

The Highway Department will have a work session with the Town Board to review the traffic study. Michael will share with the CAC afterward. The County is doing a separate study.

8:38pm close
