Am not a member of the Malcolm White Post, #433 Amer. Legion.

During the summer of 1918 we were doing Aeroplane duty at Rosendun Romorantin and Orléans France.
Installing motors and assembling all kinds of aeroplanes.

From September 1918 on I was transferred and done Convoy duty from different sections. This consisted of taking so many Motor Trucks from the rear of the lines to the front.

We did this till Oct. 19th about one month, then returned and did the same thing from other points.
